

Press release

Chinatown Business Association (CBA) brings the festive cheer through Christmas Market and Workshops (12 Dec 2020 – 3 Jan 2021)

30 November 2020 - Chinatown Business Association (CBA), in collaboration with its tenants and stakeholders, is welcoming the festive season with the Chinatown Christmas Market and Workshops from 12 Dec 2020 – 3 Jan 2021.

CBA is organising a range of festive offerings over the four weekends from 2 to 6pm daily, to bring in the Christmas and New Year festivities to Chinatown Street Market.

Visitors can experience a range of creative workshops, such as Terrarium building and Pottery, to appreciation sessions such as Coffee Making and Appreciation workshops as well. CBA is also bringing back some old-school games, such as chap teh and Snake & Ladders, welcoming visitors of all ages to take a trip down memory lane at the Chinatown Street Market.

The Chinatown Christmas Market, which will be held on the last two weekends of December at Sago and Pagoda Street, will feature an array of retail stalls with interesting merchandise, fashion and wellness offerings.

These initiatives are part of CBA's continuous support of its Street Market tenants and stakeholders.

Ticket sales for workshops will commence on Friday, 27 November 2020.
